Announcements

- f Academic Calendar Update: Associate Provost is reviewing the revised Academic Calendar and then it needs to be approved by the HR and Chancellors office. The revised calendar is to adjust the Cruise dates for summer 2019 because of Texas Maritime
- f Coast Guard Exams will not be conducted this week due to the Federal Government shutdown. President added to this stating that Senator Collins had sent a letter to Coast Guard at National Maritime Center to try to allow the Coast Guard exams to proceed. But the response was clear that due to Fede 'Vallejo Marine Terminal' bought a piece of land quarter mile away, from previous location of the General Mills Plant But their project was scrapped after realizing that the project may not be financially viable. Then ORCEM proposed establishing a cement plant on that piece of land upon approval by the Vallejo City Council. At this point of time ORCEM is awaiting clearance by the Environmental agency and no decision has been made

Cal Maritime has some innovative project ideas for this piece of land without the expense of any campus dollars to delve on the promise of a public university and contribute to the South Vallejo community.

Provost Report

The Provost reported that Cal Maritime Advisory Council meeting has been set Jan 18, 2019. The Deans are planning the schedule for that meeting.
