

Senate Executive Committee Meeting (1/24/2023)

Attendees: Sarah Senk (Vice Chair), Matthew Fairbanks (Secretary), Ariel Setniker, Wil Tsai, Christine adjust its funding to match our student FTEs. 2023 admit numbers look better, but we

- Tsai wondered whether we want to speak to faculty and Senate sooner rather than later for transparency or whether we want to delay somewhat to make the messaging clear and
- Yip thought perhaps 10 minutes for Lozano on Thursday would be a good idea, but we should give him some guidance on what questions he should definitely have answers for. What is going to be triaged and how? Etc, etc.
- Isakson suggested that perhaps options for creative recruiting and funding should be focused on. She stated that at least some funding for capital projects is from donors. Other attendees clarified that the big projects are generally state funding.
- Isakson also brought up the fact that the impression within the CSU that we are federally funded as a military academy is costing us in terms of other funding opportunities.
- Provost Schroeder noted that we did get the million dollar grant for the microgrid, but
