

VETERAN SELF-IDENTIFICATION FORM FOR EMPLOYEES

Protected Veterans.

This employer is a Government contract subject to the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended by the Job Access and Benefits Act of 2002, 38 U. S. C. 4212 (VEVRAA), which requires Government contractors to take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment: (1) disabled veterans; (2) recently separated veterans; (3) active duty wartime or campaign badge veterans; and (4) Armed Forces service medal veterans. These classifications are defined as follows:

A "disabled veteran" is one of the following:

- A veteran of the U.S. Military ground, naval or air service who is entitled to compensation (or who, but for the receipt of military retire pay, would be entitled to compensation) under laws administered by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs; or
- A person who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.

A "recently separated veteran" means any veteran during the three-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty in the U.S. Military ground, naval or air service.

An "active duty wartime or campaign badge veteran" means a veteran who served on active duty in the U. S. Military ground, naval, or air service during a war, or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized under the laws administered by the Department of Defense.

An "Armed forces service medal veteran" means a veteran who, while serving on active duty in the U. S. Military ground, naval, or air service, participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12958.

Protected veterans may have additional rights under USERRA - the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act. In particular, if you were absent from employment in order to perform service in the uniformed service, you may be entitled to be reemployed by your employer in the position you would have obtained with reasonable certainty if not for the absence due to service.
