Purpose

This policy establishes guidelines for the naming of campus facilities and properties. The Board of Trustees of the California State University retains authority for naming all CSU facilities and properties; e.g., all buildings, major portions of buildings; university or college streets or roads; stadium and baseball fields and other areas of major assembly or activity; plazas, malls and other large areas of campus circulation; and all other highly visible facilities and properties. The Board delegates to the Chancellor the authority to name individual rooms, limited areas and individual items or features within rooms, limited areas and individual items or features within Chancellor has subdelegated to the Presidents the authority to name individual rooms, limited areas, and individual items or features within buildings, individual landscape items or features, limited outdoor areas, and other minor properties. The President is delegated authority to approve temporary naming for a facility or property, reflecting natural or geographic features or reflecting a traditional theme of a university. Each proposal for naming a CSU facility or property shall be considered on its own merits. In all cases, due diligence must be performed and observed to ensure that names given are appropriate to the University. The intent of the CSU policy is to bring only highly visible facilities and properties before the Board of Trustees.
